WASHINGTON, D. C.

February 19 1913.

Dear Sir:

In reply to your communication of February fifteenth, I beg to say that the United States National Museum order number 52872, sent to you a few days ago, was for a second copy of H. A. Ramsden's "Modern Chinese Copper Coins", desired for the Library of the National Museum, and to request that you kindly forward a copy as soon as possible.

By authority of the Secretary.

Very respectfully yours,

Paul Brockett

Assistant Librarian.

Mr. Howland Wood,

93 Perry Street,

Brookline, Massachusetts.
